EVENT RECAPS

TWEKOBÉ PROJECT

The second Cohort of the Tweekobe Project kicked off with a number of participants in which they were equipped with skills in shoe making, weaving baskets, menstrual hygiene management through making reusable pads.

FFENA KUKYOTO

Diverse Empowerment Foundation hosted another session of Ffena Kukyoto which involved discussing on how best LGBTQ women living with or without disabilities can safely live in a homophobic country like Uganda. The session also highlighted on the challenges faced by transwomen and how best they may keep safe.

TYABULA TUBONE

During the course of the Second Cohort of the Tweekobe Project, the participants had a chance to engage into the Tyabula Tubone where they showed off their talent of dancing and singing.

SMUG

We stand in solidarity with Sexual Minorities Uganda (SMUG) after the Uganda's National Bureau for Non-governmental Organizations banned it for not having officially registered with it. Before being banned, SMUG had provided education on sexuality and advocated for health services for LGBTQ people since 2004.
